

Alex Kwechansky,
DABFA

Professional Experience:

Mr. Kwechansky's specialty is in discovery and resolution of suspicious or fraudulent activity in closely held companies. His practice advises attorneys dealing with suspicious financial cases and company owners focused on financial control and fraud prevention. His focus includes day to day issues, structured and sustainable growth and avoiding fraudulent and deceptive situations. His clients include shareholders, lenders, PC investors, financially involved parties including divorce, suppliers etc. In 1981, using his hands on knowledge, he began creating and teaching business operations courses and seminars at the University of California. From 1994 – 2009 he taught over fifty continuing professional education seminars for accountants and attorneys. His first book Never Underestimate Who Can Cheat You! Is an essential guide for business fraud detection.

Education: UCLA, holds the accreditation of Diplomate in accordance with the American Board of Forensic accounting.