ESQ. CPA, CRFAC

Professional Experience

Ms. Antonia L. Gentry is an Attorney, Certified Public Accountant and Certified Forensic Accountant with over 20 years of professional experience. Ms. Gentry began her professional career as an Associate Accountant in Tax with PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP in Atlanta. Her years of employment with a “Big 4” public accounting firm afforded her experience in every variation of Taxation by all U.S. regulatory agencies. Her career continued on to Tax litigation where Ms. Gentry has successfully defended hundreds of individuals and businesses against the IRS and State Taxing Authorities. While still running an accounting firm full-time, Ms. Gentry went back to school to earn her law degree. Soon after becoming a Florida Bar licensed attorney, she began focusing on the complexities of litigation support and other forensic audit services for her attorney colleagues. The combination of her legal and accounting background gives Ms. Gentry a unique perspective in creating easy to grasp exhibits for the trier of fact and makes her a much sought after resource for litigation support.

Today Ms. Gentry is well known as a fierce advocate for individuals and businesses in need of tax defense and a reliable source for forensic litigation support.

Education

Ms. Gentry has a Bachelor of Accounting and Business Administration from Washington and Lee University and a Juris Doctorate of Law from Nova Southeastern University. Ms. Gentry is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, American Board of Forensic Accountants, American Bar Association, Florida Association of Attorney-Certified Public Accountants, and the National Association of Tax Professionals.
